TROOPS POURING INTO LONDON FOR EDWARD'S FUNERAL

Thirty Thousand Will be on Duty in London for Funeral.

Roosevelt is Accorded High Honors.

VIEWS BODY OF EDWARD TODAY

London, May 16.—Thousands of troops arrived today and by morning there will be 30,000 soldiers in the city. The royal household and the diplomatic corps viewed the body of Edward this morning. Half hour changes of details of guards around the coffin were inaugurated today to replace the hour changes in effect heretofore. The guard in full uniform stands absolutely rigid. It was found the hourly shift was proving too great a strain.

Roosevelt Arrives.

London, May 16.—Roosevelt arrived this morning, and was officially welcomed by both the municipality and the government as ambassador to the funeral of Edward. George showed interest by sending Lord Dunsford to greet the American when he landed from the steamer Mecklenburg, and having a royal carriage at the station to convey Roosevelt's family to the home of Ambassador Reid. Admiral Neville welcomed Roosevelt. London newspapers praise Roosevelt, devoting large editorials to him. Whit Monday usually nationally celebrated, is a quiet day.

Roosevelt's first official act was to view the body of the late king. He was accompanied by the ambassadorial staff. The Roosevelt's motored to the palace and were admitted to the room where Edward's body lay. King George appointed Lord Dunsford and Commander Cunningham to have charge of the Roosevelt's entertainment. It is an unusual mark of distinction. George greeted Roosevelt cordially.

Southern Illinois Bankers.

The Southern Illinois Bankers' association will meet in Metropolis, Ill., May 25. In the evening a banquet will be served. One of the speakers will be Mr. James C. Utterback, cashier of the City National bank, who will respond with an address on "Bank Consolidation."

Baptists Go to Jacksonville.

Baltimore, May 16.—The Southern Baptist convention unanimously decided to meet in Jacksonville, Fla., next year. The convention sermon will be preached by the Rev. Dr. Charles S. Gardner, of Kentucky, and the alternate will be Dr. Lee R. Scarborough, of Texas.

At the morning session, the Rev. Dr. Burrows reported there was a general increase during the past year of $114,000 for the home and foreign mission boards.

Railway Carmen Return.

Q. P. Wallace, chairman, and Frank A. Milliken, secretary, of the joint protective board of the Brotherhood of the Railway Carmen of the Illinois Central system, have returned from Chicago, where they were in conference with the officials in regard to the new agreement, which was signed. An increase in wages was secured in the agreement.

GRAVEL CONTRACT LET TO BEN T. FRANK.

Ben T. Frank secured the contract from the county for furnishing the gravel to cover the driveway of the new concrete bridge over Clark's river, which was erected by the Vincennes Bridge company. It will require about 600 yards of gravel for the bridge and approaches which will make a cost of about $348. The contract was awarded Saturday afternoon by County Road Supervisor John R. Thompson. The bidders were: Ben T. Frank, 58 cents a yard; S. B. Gho'son, 60 cents a yard; and J. E. Jones, 65 cents a yard.

Alfonso Off to London.

Madrid, May 16.—King Alfonso left here for London to attend the funeral of the late King Edward.

Coal Companies Demand That Span of Burlington Bridge be Thousand Feet Long to Accomodate Big Tows

Pittsburgh Combine and West Kentucky's local Representatives Discuss Question With Engineer for Road.

Efforts to adjust objections to the proposed Burlington railroad bridge over the Ohio river at Metropolis has already begun. The first of the river interests to satisfy are the West Kentucky Coal company, of Paducah, and the Pittsburgh Coal combine.

The protest of the coal companies and the railroad arises over the width of the main channel span of the bridge, the plans calling for a width of 550 feet. As a result an effort will be made to have the plans altered so as the main span will be at least 1,000 feet wide.

Impending danger to towboats pushing immense tows of coal was pointed out this morning by Mr. C. S. Bookwalter, transportation manager of the West Kentucky Coal company in reference to a 550 foot span at Metropolis. As an example of what would be the ultimate result of a span of this width he pointed out the Henderson bridge, where big losses have resulted almost constantly by tows of coal crashing into the piers. Another difficulty and a question of utmost importance to towboat people is the delay the Metropolis bridge would cause if the span were only 550 feet. Mr. Bookwalter said the West Kentucky Coal company usually started its boats south between midnight and dawn in order to get through the Cairo span during the day. The Cairo bridge is 503 feet, and the combine towboats have to be assisted by their tugs.

To get through a 550 foot span at Metropolis during the night would be almost impossible to a towboat with a big tow without causing a loss by striking a pier. To avoid this danger a towboat would have to be here until daylight and then it would be night before she reached the Cairo bridge, the span of which is much narrower. But the danger is checked to some extent by the assistance of tug boats. If the Metropolis bridge span was left at 550 feet the Pittsburgh Coal company would be forced to operate a tug here at a cost of not less than $40 per day.

At Henderson, it is claimed, that the coal companies have suffered immense losses. The current at Metropolis is an obstacle in itself, and when the Ohio is rising and the Tennessee is falling it would cause a towboat and her tow to drift toward the Kentucky shore, resulting in a collision with a pier.

Mr. Bookwalter said the Cairo bridge span should be made wider. Millions of bushels of coal have been lost there by coal companies. An ordinary sized tow, which is 10 barges wide or 350 feet, would have little room to get through, taking the length of the two and boat into consideration. Mr. Bookwalter, as an example, pointed out the giant towboat Sprague. "Suppose she had a 1,000 foot tow," he said, "and in all the tow was 1,500 feet. It would be impossible for her to get through without striking the bridge."

Bodies Carried Down Stream Into Eddies

That most of the bodies drowned with the City of Saltillo may never float far from the scene of the wreck and come to the surface after a time, was the opinion expressed by Pilot Charles Street, who arrived in Paducah this morning. Mr. Street is one of the survivors of the Saltillo but was not at the wheel at the time of the accident.

Mr. Street said there are numerous eddies near where the boat sank and these may keep the bodies from floating downstream and finally forcing them to the surface.

Mr. Street had not retired when the boat struck the rocks and said he could have escaped sooner. In an effort to help save the passengers who were drowned he was forced to the hurricane roof from where he escaped.

Pilot Street and Ed Pell arrived yesterday from St. Louis to take the City of Savannah to St. Louis to enter the Saltillo's trade at once.

THE WEATHER

The predictions and temperatures for the past twenty-four hours will be found at the top of the seventh column on page four.

"Would you protest against a 750 foot span," Mr. Bookwalter asked.

"We might consider that," he said with some doubt, "but we may change our minds later."

The West Kentucky would have the aid of her harbor boat here and would not feel the width of the span as much as the Pittsburgh Coal company.

It is merely a matter of dollars and cents with the railroad, according to Mr. Bookwalter and they may fight the stand for a 1,000 foot span. At Cincinnati on June 9 the board of engineers of the railroad will meet the towboat companies and at this time the width of the span will be settled as far as the recommendations are concerned. The railroad may appeal from the stand taken by the towboat people or the towboat people may appeal, as the case may be. It is generally conceded, however, that nothing less than 1,000 feet will be stood for.

LIEUT. DONOVAN TEACHES CADETS.

Another honor has come to Lieutenant Richard Donovan. He has received an appointment as instructor at the United States Military academy at West Point, where he was graduated two years ago. At present, he is commissary and quartermaster at Fort Screven, on the Atlantic coast, a short distance from Savannah, Ga. The appointment is an honor that Lieutenant Donovan may be rightfully proud of, and his many friends in his home city are pleased also. August 1 Lieutenant and Mrs. Donovan will go to West Point to reside.

Lieutenant Donovan is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Donovan, of this city. In 1908 he was graduated from West Point as second lieutenant, and was a member of the class graduated in February, instead of June. He was stationed at Fort Screven, where he was soon promoted to the rank of first lieutenant.

Safe Blowers Succeed.

Council Meets Tonight

The general council will meet at the city hall at 7:30 o'clock tonight in regular session. Mostly routine business will come up for disposal. Dr. D. G. Murrell, of the board of park commissioners, will submit plans tonight for the purpose of parking South Tenth street from Jackson to Husbands streets.

GOV. GLENN WILL SPEAK IN THIS CITY THURSDAY

Governor Glenn, of North Carolina, one of the most famous orators of the south, who recently has devoted his talents to the cause of missions, will be the guest here of the Paducah presbytery Thursday and will speak Thursday night at the First Presbyterian church on the subject of home missions. No one, who has not heard Governor Glenn speak, has ever heard home missions completely expounded.

DENNY AND KILGO CHOSEN BISHOPS ON FIRST BALLOT

Methodists Begin Election at General Conference This Morning.

Large Field of Favorites For High Offices.

FIGHT ON BISHOP MORRISON.

Asheville, N. C., May 16. (Special).—Dr. Collins Denny, of the Baltimore conference and a member of the Vanderbilt board, and Dr. J. C. Kilgo, head of Trinity College at Durham, N. C., were elected bishops of the Southern Methodist church at the general conference here this morning.

There are seven vacancies to be filled by election. It is the consensus of opinion that the election of bishops, officers and editors will last nearly a week, and several thousand ballot blanks have been ordered.

The field of candidates at the present time consists of Rev. J. C. Kilgo, North Carolina conference; Rev. W. R. Lambuth, Tennessee; Rev. Collins Denny, Baltimore conference; Rev. G. C. Rankin, Texas; Rev. H. M. Dubose, Mississippi conference; Rev. R. G. Waterhouse, Holston conference; Rev. J. F. Cannon, Virginia conference; Rev. C. M. Bishop, Missouri conference; Rev. W. P. MacMurry, Louisville conference; Rev. E. D. Moulton, South Texas; Rev. J. E. Dickey, North Georgia; Rev. W. Ainsworth, South Georgia; Rev. J. W. Tarbox, Brazil Mission; H. C. Tucker, Brazil Mission; Rev. F. N. Parker, of Louisiana conference, and F. B. Culver, of Alabama conference.

Bishop Morrison.

Bishop H. C. Morrison's troubles are not over, even though the committee of investigation appointed by Bishop Candler has found that a trial is not necessary on the charges preferred by Rev. W. F. Packard and others of Texas.

While this committee voted unanimously against indicting the bishop, it also adopted a resolution that the papers in the case be referred to the committee on episcopacy as a complaint.

When this is done the case will assume this position: Bishop Morrison will be before the committee on episcopacy for examination as to his character and as to his efficiency. The former will be passed again, having been arrested by the Packard charges. As to the latter, the committee has already formally voted to superannuate him, 28 men favoring it and 13 opposing it. This action will be reported to the general conference, and if the report is adopted the bishop will be retired. The majority of the committee believe that they will be sustained. There is much sympathy among the laymen for him, and he is now placed in the role of a martyr; but so many complaints have been made from every section of the church to the effect that he is mentally and temperamentally disqualified to fill the office, that the conference may sustain its committee.

Vanderbilt Case.

Dr. J. D. Hammond, secretary of the board of education, told Judge N. D. Linebaugh, one of the leading members of the committee on education of this general conference of Methodists, last night that Bishop Hendrix would not convene the Vanderbilt board of trust here this week for a settlement of the questions that have stirred the Southern Methodist church. It is learned that Judge O'Rear will address a note to Bishop Hendrix on this subject tomorrow, and ask for an answer as to what he proposes to do in response to the mandate of the general conference. Much will depend on his reply.

Law Suit Looms Up.

Dr. J. W. Blackard, of the Memphis conference, who is a member of the committee on education, in discussing the case, said that if the board did not meet here as it has been invited to do by the general conference, "a storm would break loose which nothing could check." He holds the position that the church owns the university, that the board of trust is a creature of the general conference, and that the conference can destroy its creature and recreate them at will.

This would indicate a determination on the part of the conference to elect a brand new board of trust, in which event the threatened law suit would be precipitated.

This will be the big week with the conference, as the proposed laws to change the name of the church, to grant women equal rights with the men, to change the time limit, and some others, are to be disposed of. The election of bishops begins tomorrow morning, and will continue for several days.

Postmaster Fisher Returns With New Appointment, Some Patronage and Two New Postoffice Stations

Postmaster F. M. Fisher has returned from Washington, having been re-appointed by President Taft, and having secured the appointment of his political friends to the vacancies in Western Kentucky. Among the benefits Paducah will receive from his trip are two new postoffice sub-stations, one of which probably be located in Walker's drug store or some other downtown point for a night station, and the other in War-

Dr. Hyde Found Guilty Of Killing Col. Swope

Kansas City, May 16.—Murder in the first degree, with recommendation of life sentence, was the verdict returned by the jury this morning in the case of Dr. B. Clark Hyde, charged with the murder of Thomas H. Swope, his wife's millionaire uncle. Kansas City's greatest philanthropist, Hyde took the verdict with motionless composure. His wife burst into tears and was taken into an ante-room. Hyde was permitted to accompany her, a marshal guarding the door. Hyde's sister broke down.

Judge Lathway said Hyde will be remanded to jail without bail and treated like every other convicted man. Mrs. Hyde will be allowed to visit her husband only on regular visiting days. Meals may be sent him, but no luxuries. The judge will give the attorneys time to make a motion for a new trial. The sentence in open court probably will be Thursday or Friday.

The Hyde trial begun April 11. He was charged with murdering Swope with cyanide, although ten other charges stand against him of murdering heirs by injecting typhoid fever germs.

Dr. Hyde said to his wife and sisters after the verdict: "I can hardly realize it. Don't worry, we will beat them in the supreme court."

He declined to make any further statement. Mrs. Hyde is bearing the burden bravely. She said: "The fight is just starting. This is no time for weakness."

Hyde was a rising physician in Kansas City. The Swope will was so fixed that the death of one of the legacies increased the amount to be received by the others. The state sought to show that Hyde planned to secure the entire fortune through

FOUR TEAMS JOIN KITTY LEAGUE AT FINAL MEETING

Paducah, Hopkinsville, Clarksville and Vincennes Raise Cash.

Season Will Open Thursday, May 26.

FIRST GAME PLAYED AT HOME.

Only four baseball clubs will compose the K. I. T. baseball league as yesterday at a meeting of the league officials when hope seemed bright of a six club league, a telegram was received from Henderson stating that efforts to raise the necessary funds had failed. Marion, Ill., stood ready to enter the league, but the withdrawing of Henderson made it necessary to start the season with four clubs as the short time before the opening of the season would not permit a sixth city to get ready.

At the meeting the schedule for the league, composed of Paducah and Hopkinsville, Ky., Vincennes, Ind., and Clarksville, Tenn., was adopted after several hours. Several schedules were submitted, but the officials selected the schedule of Harry Cooper, of Paducah, as the best. The schedule will open May 26 with Hopkinsville at Paducah, and Clarksville at Vincennes. The schedule will be completed September 21.

This was the last meeting of the officials before the opening of the season. All the officials said the outlook is good for a successful season, and with proper management they expect the league to grow next season. The fact that they decided to brave this season with four clubs was in the hope that next year better baseball could be enjoyed. Present at the meeting yesterday were: President C. C. Gosnell, of Vincennes; W. I. Hancock, of Hopkinsville; A. C. Murray, of Clarksville; W. E. Cochran, treasurer, of Paducah; R. D. Clements, Kenzie Murray, H. B. Sewall, Jesse Gilbert, directors of the local club, and Harry Cooper, manager of the Paducah team.

If Henderson had not failed to raise the money the league would have been much stronger. Marion, Ill., would have been an excellent drawing city, as the number of interurban railroads afford the club a large territory to draw from, and it is estimated that it would have been the best paying team in the league. President C. C. Gosnell and Manager Harry Cooper returned Sunday morning and reported that there would be no trouble in securing Marion for the sixth city.

Players Report.

For the first workout, the squad of ball players reported at Wallace park this afternoon. Sunday several players arrived, while more are expected tonight, and by tomorrow the entire bunch of ball tossers is expected. The following players have reported: Joe Crain, of Sparta, Tenn.; Ewing Harris, of Erlin, Tenn.; pitcher; Charles Lockhart, of Erlin, Tenn.; infielder; W. G. Corbett, of Anna, Ill.; infielder; S. M. Nowacki, of Louisville, catcher; Palmore, of Chaffee, Mo., pitcher. Tonight R. G. Tidwell, of Caruthersville, Mo.; Frank Overton, of New Albany, Wood Payne, of Nashville, and John Keely, of Louisville, are expected to arrive.

The local players also reported for practice this afternoon, and Manager Harry Cooper put his candidates through a strenuous workout. Vincennes and Clarksville have their teams on the fields, while the Hopkinsville players are reporting. Most of the Paducah players are in good condition, and with a little team work will be ready for the fray. Practice will be held every day at the park. The new uniforms are expected to arrive in a few days.

With the organization of the Paducah team the fans are called up to pay for the stock that was subscribed for several weeks ago. Collectors are now calling on the stockholders, and it is anticipated that they will pay promptly, as the funds are necessary to meet expenses incurred until the gate receipts begin to roll in.

Opening Day.

The opening day will be a big event. All of the merchants will be asked to close their stores in the afternoon to permit everybody to enjoy the start of the race. It is expected that a packed grand stand will see the first game, as the sale of tickets for the opening game is progressing lively.

Dr. Frank Boyd rested comfortably today at Riverside hospital and is improving.

Game.

BENTON DEFEATS CULLEY'S.

Sweet revenge was secured yesterday afternoon by the B. B. Hook baseball team which defeated the Elks by a score of 10 to 0. The Elks lacked team work, and the ability to hit Lee Hart, who was in rare form, and at all stages of the game held his opponents safe. McChesney for the Elks, was hit freely, and worse still, his teammates made many errors with men on the sacks. Three weeks ago the Elks defeated the Hooks and now the two teams are tied.

The Hooks started the run getting in the first inning. Cox was first at bat and led off with a single, and stole second. He scored when Harper hit safely to center for two sacks. Monroe was safe on a ground er to second. Carroll followed with a line drive to left field for two sacks and Harper and Monroe tallied.

Several players were used to fill vacancies in the Elks' lineup as all of the regular players did not report, but nevertheless they were unable to do anything with Hart's delivery. On the other hand McChesney was hit freely, and in the sixth inning he retired in favor of Sutton, who refused to allow the Hooks a safe hit. It was too late to turn the game as the Hooks had a lead of ten scores.

The teams lined up:

In the afternoon game on the I. C. railroad shops diamond, the Weille's defeated the Walersteins in a one-sided hit and run game by a score of 22 to 3. Kevill, Ky., May 16. (Special.)—For the second time this season Kevill defeated LaCenter yesterday at Kevill. The score was 11 to 7. Both Martin for Kevill, and Wand for La

It was intended for Kevill to play a second game with Lovelaceville, but the game was postponed. Next Sunday Kevill will play Brookport.

Henderson Failed.

The Henderson Gleaner says: "Henderson will not secure a franchise in the Kitty league. Because the measly little sum of $260 could not be raised on Saturday, the loyal fans who worked day and night for two weeks in an effort to raise $1,500 must either go to Evansville or some other city to witness the sport, or stay at home all summer, being contented with probably a half dozen games by independent or high school teams."

Cooper a Good One.

The Vincennes Capital Says of Manager Harry Cooper:

"Harry Cooper has been appointed manager of the Paducah team and is assembling his men. Cooper it will be remembered was once a hard hitting outfielder for the local team and was one of the best long distance sluggers of the Kitty league. He is said to be as good as ever and will in all probability play left field for the Indians. Cooper also plays the infield but prefers the outfield. He is an old hand and should be able to give Paducah a winner. Whether he intends using his old friend Harry Lloyd is not known."

MONDAY, MAY 16,

Daily Thought.

Success is not only the good that you do, but also the evil that you hinder.—Anon.

Why not call the river front "Comet" park?

It will be nice for the Cairo people if the railroads and steamboats will run excursions up here this summer for the ball games.

SENATOR PAYNTER'S GOOD WORK.

Senator Paynter made a strong play for re-election when he secured the long and short haul clause in the railroad bill, and if the provision accomplishes all that is claimed for it, many interior towns will have cause to thank him for his efforts. The provision, as we understand it, compels railroads, if they propose to haul freight for less to a distant point than they do to any intermediate point on the line, to submit to the interstate commerce commission reasons for it. Some congressmen think the provisions extend the authority to the commission to revise the rates to every intermediate point to correspond.

For instance, the city of Spokane, Washington, complains that goods are shipped to Seattle, 500 miles beyond, from New York and then back to Spokane, 500 miles more, for less than they are shipped to Spokane. Competition and ocean rates are the excuses given by the railroads for this apparent discrimination. Chattanooga has complained that goods from the east are shipped through Chattanooga to Memphis and then back to Chattanooga for less than they are to Chattanooga, and Chattanooga merchants are maintaining a steamboat line in the Tennessee river, in an effort to make Chattanooga a competitive point under the ruling of the commission.

How far-reaching this will be in affecting the competition between cities, and in building up the wholesale and manufacturing trade of interior towns, can be imagined.

Heretofore, rates have been reviewed only upon complaint of the shipper. Under the proposed law the burden devolves upon the railroad to show cause why rates should be changed, and the commission has authority of its own motion to review classifications as well as rates, while an itinerant court of review will be ready to give prompt attention to all appeals, thus saving expense of money and time in the final decision of such controversies.

The physical valuation of railroad property and the supervision of all issues of stocks and bonds by the interstate commerce commission, to prevent issues for any purpose other than the physical improvement of the lines and to prevent issues beyond the ability of the company to meet its obligations, are other provisions, which will stop stock jobbing in the future.

This is the Taft bill as originally proposed, with the long and short haul clause added, and the bill is likely to become a law substantially as outlined.

ANOTHER EXPOSURE.

This is the harvest season for the "snitch" stenographer, who is willing to part with his self-respect and honor along with confidential information for a small remuneration to publications, which dish it up with a sauce of home manufactured suspicious circumstances to make the whole look like a gigantic conspiracy to do something—the public is left to guess what.

The last to succumb to the tempter was a stenographer in the interior department at Washington, who informed a representative of a newspaper association that the letter of President Taft in defense of Secretary Ballinger was actually prepared in Ballinger's office and submitted to the president, and that many of the expressions were verbatim as dictated to the informant.

Today President Taft corroborates the wonderful revelation of the late stenographer, and says the letter was prepared in Secretary Ballinger's office at his own suggestion and submitted to him. Thus another Washington sensation flattens out, and the press association must feel that it has paid the "snitch" a big price for something the president would have told himself if he had been asked.

Richard Achilles Ballinger happened to be President Taft's choice for secretary of the interior, and when a subordinate in that department filed charges against him, the president turned the letter over to Mr. Ballinger, assuring the secretary of his entire confidence in the secretary's allegiance to the administration, and in-

PREPARING FOR THE COMET

Boston, May 16.—Agreeing that no harmful effect is to be experienced on next Wednesday, when the earth passes through the tail of Halley's comet, New England astronomers appear not to concur as to the possibility of a luminous display similar to northern lights. Prof. David P. Todd, of Amherst college, thinks the aurora effect probable. Prof. Robert W. Wilson of the Harvard college observatory declared today there may be a darkening of the atmosphere, while Prof. Edward C. Pickering, head of the Harvard observatory, said:

"I doubt if there will be any effect at all."

Prof. Willson said further that "there may be a shower of charged particles, very small, but numerous, which may affect wireless telegraphy."

"There is no cause for alarm or fear. Cyanogen exists only near the comet's head and the tail is a good vacuum."

Is More Brilliant.

Prof. Todd declares that there will be no more sensation than that caused by the rays of light from a distant candle in a person's hand. There is an equal amount of cyanogen gas radiated from each, proportionately, he says.

structing him to prepare such a refutation as he desired and return it to the white house for the president's inspection. Then President Taft made such changes, as he saw fit, and signed the letter, making it his own. If President Taft assumes responsibility for the letter and voluntarily and without duress signed the letter, after having perused it, it is his letter. We presume that every inquiry and charge presented to the president, which concerns any executive department, is referred by him to the proper department for investigation and reply.

Some Stories Around the Town.

Mr. Russell Palmer, a senior at Dartmouth college, has written the senior class play that will be presented commencement. The title of the play is "The Pea-Green Earl," and it is said to be one of the best class plays rehearsed at the college. It is sparkling with wit, while appropriate music has been arranged by Mr. L. S. Wiggins, a class mate. Mr. Palmer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Palmer, of the city, and is one of the most popular students at Dartmouth, besides being the winner of laurels in athletics.

If Venus enjoys a joke, she had a chance for a good laugh early Sunday morning, when all the people who live "close in" and left calls to see the comet foregathered at the river bank and gazed in wonder-struck silence at her matutinal charms. Scores of others were standing at their windows, clad in their "nighties" and catching colds in their heads, while the white queen of the morning sat serenely over the east. The beautiful, brilliant star is well worth more than a glance, but it was a question in the minds of some of those who suspected her identity, whether it was worth such an untimely break into one's Sabbath morning slumbers. Some of the others went away perfectly satisfied, in blissful ignorance, and told their friends that they saw the comet. To their half-opened eyes Venus took on extraordinary proportions, and their two hands illustrated her dimensions, as they reported the phenomenon, in sizes varying from an ordinary are lamp to a wastub. As a matter of fact, until a hen, also in the employ of the naked eye since Friday, and the clouds obscured the vision here at that time. Those who had the pleasure of seeing it early in the week, saw it slightly to the north and above Venus, with a tail longer than that of "Comet A-1910," extending almost half way to the zenith. Those who called people out of their beds Sunday morning took into account only the clearness of the sky and failed to observe the itinerary of the comet, which will next be visible after Wednesday in the evening.

A comedian at the Kentucky theater Saturday afternoon at the second matinee had a disagreeable experience, though he probably afforded more amusement to the audience than he would had his act gone through without extraneous business being introduced. A flock of geese, conjured up at each performance by a magician on the bills, strayed on the stage while he was singing, and became interested auditors. The quartet stood in a group at the side of the stage and watched the performance intently, until a hen, also in the employ of the magician, joined them. The geese didn't care for the society of the hen, and immediately began to act like a box party at a grand opera performance. They talked so mean to the hen that she turned her back on them, and with a toss of the head stalked consciously into the wings.

Then the geese turned their attention to the performance again and their criticisms were so pointed and so obviously personal, that the comedian turned red and stammered the lines of his song.

Craning their necks in his direction and chattering as fast as they could make their bills go, the geese drowned out his words, and when he

Leon Campbell, another of the Harvard astronomers, thinks a luminous display probable.

The increasing brilliancy of the comet as it approaches the earth, was shown when Harvard college astronomers found that the body with the coma, or envelope, had reached proportions of nearly a zero magnitude, the highest stage of stellar brilliancy. The rate of increase in brilliancy is indicated by two photometric measurements taken at the Harvard observatory.

The first, on May 6, showed the nucleus to be of 7.06 magnitude. Another on Friday, just a week later showed the magnitude to be 4.41, an increase in apparent size of 2.65 degrees.

Lowell Will Study Comet.

New York, May 16.—Prof. Percival Lowell, the authority on the planet Mars, returned today by the steamer New York from an European lecture trip. After a brief visit to Boston, he will go direct to Harvard observatory at Flagstaff, Ariz., to make observations of Halley's comet. The professor had two sights of the comet with the naked eye on his trip across the Atlantic, but had nothing to add to what other observers had observed.

finished and retreated from the stage they followed him to the center, where they faced the audience, to whom they addressed their concluding remarks.

Apparently satisfied with their own explanation of the situation the geese then waddled in single file off R. I. E., amidst the delighted applause of the entire audience.

AT THE CHURCHES

South Side.

There were two additions to the South Side Methodist church on South Third street yesterday morning. The pulpit was filled by the pastor, the Rev. J. B. Pearson. Last evening the Rev. Pearson preached at Little's Chapel where a revival, which began last Wednesday, is in progress. Tonight the Rev. A. E. Scott of Tyler will preach at the revival.

Fountain Avenue.

An excellent musical program was had at the Fountain Avenue Methodist church yesterday morning. The Rev. C. B. Marsh, of Louisville, spoke on "Songs of the Spirit." At the evening service the Rev. W. A. Banks, of Oak Level, filled the pulpit. Large congregations were present at both services.

First Christian.

An unusually large congregation was present at the First Christian church yesterday morning when the pastor, the Rev. W. A. Fite spoke on the subject of "What is Prayer?" There was one accession at this service. The choir sang an anthem and Mrs. W. C. Gray and Mr. Walter Clark sang a duet. Last evening the Rev. H. W. Elliott, state secretary of the home mission board, delivered an address along lines of mission work. Miss Inez Bell sang a solo. Wednesday evening the pastor will speak on the subject of "Sinning Against the Holy Spirit" at the prayer meeting service. The sermon will deal chiefly with the unpardonable sin.

Second Baptist.

Large audiences attended the Second Baptist church yesterday morning and evening. Next Sunday morning a revival will begin and will be conducted by the Rev. B. A. Ellis, of Corinth, Miss. assisted by the pastor, the Rev. G. B. Smalley.

North Twelfth Street.

The Rev. Greathouse, of Bowling Green, Ky., who is visiting his son in this city, filled the pulpit at the North Twelfth Street Baptist church yesterday morning. Last night the pastor, the Rev. J. R. Clark, preached on the subject of "The Devil's

Catarrh Can Quickly Be Cured.

A bottle of Hyomei, a hard rubber pocket inhaler, that will last a lifetime, and simple instructions for curing catarrh make a Hyomei outfit. Into the Inhaler you pour a few drops of magical Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me.)

This is absorbed by the antiseptic gauze within and now you are ready to breathe it over the germ infested membrane where it will speedily begin its work of killing catarrh germs. Hyomei is made of Australian eucalyptol combined with other antiseptics and is very pleasant to breathe.

It is guaranteed to cure catarrh, bronchitis, sore throat, croup, coughs and colds, or money back. It cleans out a stuffed up head in a few minutes.

Sold by druggists everywhere, and by Gilbert's drug store. Complete outfit $1.00. And remember that extra bottles if afterwards needed cost only 50 cents. Breathe it, that's all.

To break up cold in head or chest in a few minutes, pour a teaspoonful of Hyomei into a bowl of boiling water, cover head and bowl with towel and breathe the vapor.

Work Destroyed." At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon four converts were baptized in the Ohio river at the foot of Broadway. There was one addition to the church last evening.

Mother's Day.

White flowers were very much in evidence yesterday morning at the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church when "Mothers' Service" was observed. Cut flowers were used in the decorations. The Rev. E. B. Landis spoke on "Mother," using the lily as an emblem of mother. He said it was emblematic of beauty, love, and was the abiding influence of things wholesome and this thought was carried throughout his remarks. Old hymns were sung, led by the pastor. Last evening the Rev. Landis spoke on the subject of the "Beautiful Gate." Next Sunday the ordination and installation of deacons and elders will be held at the morning hour.

Evangelical.

At a business meeting of the congregation of the German Evangelical church on South Fifth street last night it was voted to issue a call to the Rev. H. M. Wiesbeck, of Newark, O., to become pastor of the church. The call will be forwarded today. The Rev. Wiesbeck preached here two weeks ago and made a very favorable impression upon the congregation. The church has been without a pastor since the resignation of the Rev. William Bourquin, who went to Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. Wiesbeck is a very capable minister and will probably accept.

First Baptist.

The Rev. M. E. Smalley, pastor of the Baptist church in Fulton, filled the pulpit of the First Baptist church morning and evening yesterday. Large congregations were present at both services. In the evening the Rev. Smalley preached a strong sermon on the contrast of the Christians in the Roman empire under Nero and some of the Christians of today. He showed the faith of the Christians even under the horrible conditions, and the fact that they were not ashamed of the gospel.

First Presbyterian.

Three additions by letter were received into the First Presbyterian church yesterday. The Rev. H. W. Burwell preached at both services. In the evening Mrs. W. E. Gray sang a solo, and Mr. Emmet Bagby sang in the morning. Sunday night and Wednesday night services now begin at 7:45 o'clock. A series of lectures on the Lord's Prayer will be given by Dr. Burwell on Wednesday evening, beginning this Wednesday. VAN CLEEVE DEAD

PRESIDENT OF MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION.

Man, Who Fought Labor Unions to Last Ditch Succumbs to Illness.

St. Louis, May 16.—J. W. VanCleave, former president of the National Manufacturers' Association, died of heart disease here Sunday.

VanCleave was 61 years of age. H. C. Thompson, for 30 years his business associate, said that VanCleave's breakdown could be traced to his war with labor unions.

VanCleave attracted international attention and became a power to contend with in both large political parties in the national convention by reason of his uncompromising attitude toward the big union labor leaders.

When the Buck Stove and Range company, of which he was president, was boycotted, following a dispute with the local union, he obtained an injunction against Samuel Gompers, president of the A. F. of L.; John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers, and Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor. The injunction was ignored and the three labor officials were sentenced to jail for contempt of the federal court of the District of Columbia. An appellate court sustained the sentence and an appeal was taken to the supreme court of the United States, where the case is still pending.

At the time of the death of VanCleave, he was a member of the executive board of the Manufacturers' Association.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

MEETING MAY 19

OVER 50 NATIONS WILL BE REPRESENTED AT PHILADELPHIA

Demonstration of Adult Bible Classes Will Be Made at Washington on Friday.

AN INTERNATIONAL GATHERING

Philadelphia, May 16.—"The most cosmopolitan gathering which ever met on this continent," is the way the world's Sunday school convention, which opens in Washington next Thursday, is described at the headquarters of the World's Sunday School association in this city. For more than a year lines from all over the world have been converging in the office of Dr. George W. Bailey, the executive head of the organization, who now announces that more than 50 nations will be officially represented in the eight thousand delegates who will gather at the capital May 19-24. For four months past the office in this city has been refusing delegates' credentials to applicants, as the quotas of the states were already filled.

A demonstration of adult Bible classes will be made at Washington next Friday, when some ten thousand men, from all over the continent, will parade down Pennsylvania avenue. Special trains will bear delegates of Sunday school men from all the neighboring states for this special occasion.

On Saturday afternoon there will be a monster open air song service on the plaza and the east steps of the capitol.

A Living Tableau.

Another spectacular feature of the convention will be a living tableau in convention hall and the closing, when a "Congress of Nations" will be represented by Washington children, dressed in foreign costumes and massed under flags of all nations and a map of the world. This tableau will be an exact reproduction of a painting "Twentieth Century Crusaders," which is being widely used in the United States and Europe and which the World's Sunday School association will place in every Sunday school in mission lands, making it probably the most widely circulated picture in existence.

The regular sessions of the convention will number 178, with speakers to the number of 300, including President Taft, Ambassador Bryce, John W. Wainwright, Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, Charles M. Alexander and many bishops and other distinguished men and women from America and abroad. The wife of Vice-President Sherman will preside over one of the mass meetings of women. Rev. F. B. Meyer, of London, president of the World's Sunday School association, will preside.

A daily "roll call" of nations will be used, in order to enable all the larger nations to find a place on the program. The British delegates to the number of nearly 200 will arrive in Philadelphia today.

RACINE LOSES, PADUCAH GAINS

JOURNAL TELLS OF SALE OF BROWN PLANT.

Concern Which Will Come to Augment Lack Malleable Iron Company.

THE DISPOSITION OF ASSETS.

The Racine (Wis.) Daily Journal says:
Racine has lost another of its manufacturing industries, the W. P. Brown Manufacturing company going out of existence, having sold its real estate to the Belle City Malleable Iron company and its patents and business to the Lack Malleable Iron company, of Paducah, Ky. The sale was officially confirmed this morning.

On May 6 the W. P. Brown Manufacturing company sold its realty to the Belle City Malleable Iron company on Kewanee street, between Forest street and the Chicago and Northwestern Railway company extending to Patrick street, and on May 12 the company sold its patents and business to the Lack Malleable Iron company, of Paducah, Ky.

F. E. Lack, president of the company, is now in the city completing details of the transfer. The plant will be moved to Paducah early in June and W. P. Brown and J. Fred Brown, will leave Racine at that time to take up their residence at Paducah. Both of these gentlemen have taken over an interest in the Lack Malleable Iron company.

The firm, besides increasing their line of saddlery hardware, etc., will engage in the general manufacture of malleable iron castings. The Paducah plant will be increased materially by the addition of the saddlery hardware line and will employ 100 men at once.

Mr. Lack is one of the most prominent men of the south, thoroughly versed in the malleable iron business and he is not a stranger to Racine, having many friends engaged in allied industries. Mr. Brown has been engaged in the malleable iron business in Racine for twenty-five years and is an authority on malleable iron. Mr. Brown has lived in the city all his life and most of that period engaged in business. He is a business man of ability and his scores of friends in business circles regret to see him leave the city, but wish him success in his new venture.

URGE DECISION IN HASKELL'S CASE

TOWN LOT CASES MAY BE SETTLED IN JUNE.

Ask Impartial Verdict—Senators Owen and Gore and Congressmen Ask That.

PARTIES NAMED BY PRESIDENT

Washington, May 16.—Following closely upon the visit to the White House of Senator Joe Bailey of Texas, Senators Owen and Gore, of Oklahoma, and Representatives Ferris and Carter, of the same state, all of whom protested against a further prosecution of Governor Haskell of Oklahoma, the president announced late today that the prosecutions would proceed.

In the strongest possible terms, and in no unmistakable language, Senator Bailey and the members of the Oklahoma delegation told the president that the government's prosecution against Governor Haskell in the Muskogee town lots suits was not only an outrage, but a travesty on justice as well, and that the suits were in reality but political persecution. The president was urged to appoint a disinterested investigator, one in whom he had confidence, to go to Oklahoma and at first hand delve into the methods pursued in securing indictments against Governor Haskell, and if, after such an investigation, it was found that the suits were the outcome of political malice, to dismiss the cases. President Taft agreed with the delegation that an investigation be made, and clearly indicated that if the charges made by them were true that the criminal proceedings should be stopped.

The president even went so far as to ask Senator Bailey what sort of representative should be sent to Oklahoma to conduct the investigation, and promised, according to the members present, that the matter would at once be taken up with the department of justice to the end that a full and impartial investigation of the causes leading up to the indictment of Governor Haskell might be inaugurated.

Want Impartial Man.

"I presume you desire an indifferent man to conduct the investigation?" the president asked Senator Bailey.

"No, Mr. President, we prefer an impartial man," declared the Texas senator. "The selection of an indifferent man might apply to his capacity as well as his fairness."

The Texas senator and the Oklahoma delegation left the White House well pleased with the result of their conference and felt sure that the president would order an investigation. Within an hour after the visitors had left the White House it was announced that, following a conference with Attorney General Wickersham, the president had decided that the prosecutions would be continued, to be pressed by the department of justice, and that a petit jury would have to pass upon the guilt or innocence of Governor Haskell at the June term of the federal court. It was also given out that Special Assistant to the Attorney General S. R. Smith, of Omaha, Neb., who has been in Washington for several days in conference with Attorney General Wickersham, would continue in charge of the prosecutions.

"Attorney General Wickersham, it seems has succeeded in overcoming the decision of the president," was the only comment Judge C. B. Stuart of McAlester, Okla., the leading attorney for Governor Haskell, just before leaving for Oklahoma tonight. "If the case ever comes to trial, we will win in a walk."

"Skeets" Hedges a Winner.

"Skeets" Hedges, a Paducah ball player, won the first game he pitched in the Bluegrass league last week from Paris, the leaders of the league. Hedges is pitching for Richmond. Seven hits were secured off Hedges but the game was won by Richmond by a score of 8 to 4. At the start of the game Paris secured a lead of three runs, but Hedges warmed up, and there was nothing doing after that. Big Zeke Taylor, who played in Paducah last season, is holding down right garden for Richmond.

"Maria," said Dorkins, "if you have any regard for the moral well-being of the children you'd better send them over to the neighbors for the next hour or two."

"Why" asked Mrs. Dorkins. "Because," he answered, with a wild, maniacal gleam in his eye, "I am going to take down the storm doors and put up the screen doors and windows."—Chicago Tribune.

PRESIDENT TAFT IS HEARD FROM

DECLARES LAWLER DID PREPARE LETTER.

Wickersham's Summary Declared by Taft to Have Been Antedated Also at His Request.

LAWLER'S WORK DIDN'T SUIT

Washington, May 16.—Taft in person took a hand in the situation which has arisen concerning the "inside" history of his letter of September 13 exonerating Ballinger from the charges of Special Agent L. R. Glavis, and authorizing the dismissal of Glavis.

Over his own signature he addressed a long letter to Senator Nelson, chairman of Ballinger-Pinchot committee, setting forth in minute details the sequence of events following his receipt at Beverly, on August 18 last, of the charges of Glavis.

The president makes no direct mention of the statement of Frederick M. Kerby, stenographer in Ballinger's office, published yesterday, in which the stenographer declared that the president's letter of exoneration was prepared in Ballinger's office by Oscar Lawler, assistant attorney general for the interior department.

Taft declares that not only Lawler did prepare such a letter as Kerby said he did, but he did so by the president's direction. When he received it, he found, he says, that it was not what he wanted to issue, and he wrote a letter himself in the form in which he desired it, using from Lawler's draft only one or two general statements.

The president takes up the question of the "back dating" of Wickersham's summary of Glavis' charges, to which Attorney Louis D. Brandeis has drawn attention. Taft says the attorney general's letter was in fact "back dated," and that this also was done by his specific direction.

Taft says he received the Glavis charges August 18, 1909. He turned them over to Wickersham. Ballinger was then in Seattle and came back September 6, and same to Beverly, Mass., where Taft then was, with Lawler. Ballinger gave him a number of exhibits in the case collected from various persons in his department. Taft says he perused all at once, sitting up till 3 o'clock in the morning. He knew the contents of the whole record in the case. He says he told Lawler, as he had many speeches to prepare for the western trip, to draft an opinion as if he were president. Taft says he did not find his statement what he wanted, because of its criticisms of Pinchot and Glavis, which he did not think it proper or wise to adopt.

"I only used a few paragraphs from it containing merely general statements. The conclusions I reached were based upon any reading of the record, and were fortified by oral analysis of the evidence."

Effective Home Cure for Tuberculosis.
It is a serious matter when the lungs are affected. A trip away or to a sanatorium is not only tremendously expensive, but it involves separation from home and friends. Some are benefited, but none can safely return to their homes.

Eckman's Alternative is effective in curing Bronchitis, Asthma and more serious affections of the lungs. No leaving home and friends is necessary. For instance:
221 S. Atlantic Ave., Haddonfield, N. J.
Gentlemen: In the Fall of 1905, I contracted a very severe cold which settled on my lungs. At last I began to raise spittle, and my physician then told me, I must go to California immediately. At this time I was advised to take Eckman's Alternative. I stayed at home and commenced taking it the last week in October. I began to improve, and the first week in January, 1906, I resumed my regular occupation, having gained 25 pounds, fully restored to health. It is now four years since my cure has been effected and I cannot praise Eckman's Alternative too highly. I have recommended it to others with excellent results. W. M. TATEM.

GREAT BRITAIN IS BIG FACTOR

INTEREST OF STOCK BROKERS OVER THERE.

Favorable Effect of Lack of Bitterness in the Political Situation.

CROPS CHIEF CONCERN HERE.

New York, May 16, (Special.)—

The stock market has had a number of adverse influences against which to contend. The disturbed political outlook, the frequent legislative attacks upon capital, the prospect of tariff revision, the tobacco and oil cases before the supreme court, the death of King Edward, the constitutional crisis in England, the increase of from $50,000,000 to $100,000,000 in railroad wages, the high cost of commodities, the unfavorable balance in our foreign trade, the rapid multiplication of new securities, the growing conservatism among bankers at the west, the land boom in that section of the country, the curtailment of pig iron production and the shutting down of cotton mills. These and other adverse influences which exerted a depressing effect upon the stock market were well understood by the large holders of securities and have been unquestionably discounted by the shrinkage in values which has taken place since the opening of the year. As a result of these tendencies a bear party of considerable influence was created, and its success stimulated resistance to all upward reactions. It should be recognized, however, that depressing conditions of this sort have probably exerted their full effect, and that other and more favorable factors are counteracting them. A sharp decline in exchange emphasized the fact that gold shipments are over. It must be admitted that our gold, having gone where it was most needed, has much improved the situation in London and the continent. The death of the king is now an affair of the past; and there is no doubt but that the British subjects will loyally support the new king. The death of King Edward, moreover, has tended to soften political asperities, and through postponement of the election, which is practically decided upon, time will be afforded for settlement of the grave problems of state with less excitement than had the crisis come to a head during the approaching summer. This elimination of bitterness from British politics will inevitably have a favorable effect upon financial affairs in London. It is quite likely that the young king, though at present naturally less popular than his royal father, will give the British nation a wise administration; and the German emperor will doubtless be less jealous of his young cousin than he seems to have been of his influential uncle, who did so much to fortify British foreign relations.

The outlook in this country depends chiefly upon the crops. Thus far the outlook in this respect is satisfactory. Some damage was done by recent unfavorable weather, but only in spots, and the injury was much exaggerated. Should the results of the crops reach $8,500,000,000 to $9,000,000,000, as is now predicted, good times for the United States will be continued. Possibly our farmers may not secure quite as large profits in 1910 as in 1909, owing to the declines in commodities; but their margin has been unusually wide, and a moderate recession will still yield the agriculturist good returns, at the same time affording some relief to the consumer who has been compelled to pay inordinately high prices during the past year. It is true that western bankers show a more conservative spirit than was anticipated a month ago, and somewhat higher rates of money are expected to prevail at the west in consequence. Nevertheless, money will be fairly abundant and easy until the new crops begin to move, which will be about September 1st. As already stated, stocks have had a very considerable decline from the high mark and it is evident that powerful financial interests are under the market; their support being rendered necessary by the issue of large amounts of new bonds and short-term notes during the current month. At present the outlook is comparatively free of breakers ahead. The discouraging influences which attracted so much attention in the public mind have been amply discounted by our financial leaders who foresaw their approach some weeks ago and adjusted themselves accordingly.

Business

Business is generally quiet; declining commodity markets having caused more or less hesitancy among buyers. A period of rest in commercial circles will prove beneficial, inasmuch as it will avert the danger of over-confidence, and enable all parties to acquire a clearer and more correct perspective of the general situation. The country has been going ahead at tremendous speed, too fast in some respects, and time is desirable so that the laggards may have an opportunity of catching up. Should the crop outlook continue satisfactory, business is sure to revive later on and there is as yet no reason for taking any but a hopeful view regarding the future. Before long congress will adjourn, and the country will then have much needed relief from the too frequent attacks upon business which emanated from that quarter. The successful placing of important amounts of American securities abroad, especially in Paris, is significant and helpful. It shows that our credit is in good standing and that there is plenty of capital awaiting investment providing the terms are sufficiently attractive.

THEATRICAL WAR'S NEW TURN.

Klaw & Erlanger Withdrawn From Association.
New York, May 16.—The war between the theatrical syndicate and the insurgents took a strange turn, when Klaw & Erlanger and the producers of their clique withdrew from the National Association of Producing Managers, which organization has agreed to meet the National Theater Owners' association within a few days for a conference looking to an adjustment of existing difficulties.

Those who withdrew with Klaw & Erlanger are Henry B. Harris, Joseph Brooke, secretary of the association; George M. Conah, Sam Harris, James Forbes, Joseph M. Gaites, William Harris, Frank McKee, Frederick Thompson and W. A. Bingwall. Charles Frohman, Daniel Frohman, David Belasco and Charles Dillingham never have been members of the association.

The reason assigned for the withdrawal of these members, as set forth in a letter from Henry B. Harris, was that the ethics of the association were violated when the happenings of last Thursday's meeting were given out for publication.

"I do not care to hold office or membership in an association that has members who have so little regard for their pledges, so I tender my resignation as president and member, to take effect immediately," said

Mr. Harris.

John Cort, president of the National Theater Owners' association, declared afterwards that the Klaw & Erlanger clique were actuated by other reasons in withdrawing.

Mr. Taylor Leaves I. C.

Notices have been received in the city announcing the resignation of John M. Taylor as general storekeeper of the Illinois Central railroad. Mr. Taylor's headquarters were in Chicago, but he visited Paducah frequently on business. He has been connected with the Illinois Central for about 25 years. The bulletin announces that W. A. Summerhaus, who has been assistant general storekeeper, will succeed Mr. Taylor. Mr. Taylor has many friends in Paducah.
